

Appendix 6 Organisations and Individuals Consulted During the Review (including the analysis of the research programme)

Organisations:

The Apple and Pear Research Council
 The Horticultural Development Council
 The East Malling Trust for Horticultural Research
 The East Malling Research Association
 The National Farmers Union
 The Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs
 Horticulture Research International
 The Brogdale Trust
 The Fresh Produce Consortium

Project leaders:

Dr Angela Berrie, formerly ADAS, now Horticulture Research International (HRI), East Malling
 Dr Neil Hipps, HRI East Malling
 Peter Moore, formerly Institute of Food Research (IFR), Reading, now Sensory Dimensions, Reading

Industry representatives:

Andrew Tinsley, APRC Research Manager, ADAS fruit consultant
 Chris Rose, former grower, APRC Council member and Chairman of Crop Husbandry Advisory committee
 Basil Neame CBE, retired fruit grower, former APRC Council member and member of Breeding and Varietal Development Advisory Committee
 Robin Barnett, Marketing Director, Worldwide Fruit
 Dr Martin Luton, fruit consultant, Qalytech and member of APRC Post Harvest Technology Advisory Committee
 Roger Clews, fruit consultant, Qalytech
 Adrian Barlow, English Apples and Pears Ltd
 Simon Thirkell, Technologist, J Sainsbury and APRC Council member
 Dr David Pennell, ADAS fruit consultant
 Tim Biddlecombe, Managing Director of FAST and a member of the APRC Crop Husbandry & Crop Protection Advisory committees
 Mike Barnett, independent consultant, formerly with FAST and formerly a member of the APRC Crop Husbandry & Crop Protection Advisory Committees
 Mark Holden, Farm Manager, Adrian Scripps Ltd (Cobham, Kent)
 Ian Mitchell, grower and Chairman of the Bramley Campaign, Robert Mitchell Partnership, Kent
 Vivien Powell, HDC Technical Manager (SOLAs)